Non-Profit Beer Garden Proposal

The City of Albany's Office of Cultural Affairs is seeking local, nonprofit organizations to provide a team of volunteers to assist in the Beer Gardens within the City's events. Volunteers are an invaluable asset which ensures the success of the City's events. The Department aims to establish and foster long standing, mutually beneficial partnerships with like-minded organizations and their volunteers. Duties include, but are not limited to pouring beer/wine to the event's patrons, in exchange for various opportunities that benefit the selected organization(s). We welcome your submission and thank you for your interest.
